

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for national priorities

Priority economy sector  Number of social integration centres, vocational activity workshops and occupation therapy workshops calculated per 100 thous, population.  Unit number of objects  Available dimentions  Social Integration Centres (SIC) are educationally-oriented establishments involved such elements of education as participants' engagement in service, trade and manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finist treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions refugees.  Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabit of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mental illness.  Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, there the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degrical disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012	Name of the indicator	1.2.a Number of the social integration centres, vocational activity workshops and occupational therapy workshops per 100 thous. population
Priority economy sector  Number of social integration centres, vocational activity workshops and occupation therapy workshops calculated per 100 thous, population.  Unit number of objects  Available dimentions total  Social Integration Centres (SIC) are educationally-oriented establishments involve such elements of education as participants' engagement in service, trade and manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finist treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions refugees.  Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabit of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mental illness.  Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, there the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degrical disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012		Goal 1. No poverty
Unit number of objects  Available dimentions total  Social Integration Centres (SIC) are educationally-oriented establishments involve such elements of education as participants' engagement in service, trade and manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finish treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions refugees.  Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabit of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons w with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mentalliness.  Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, there the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degrated disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012	Priority	Increase in activation of socially excluded persons i.a. through development of social economy sector
Social Integration Centres (SIC) are educationally-oriented establishments involved such elements of education as participants' engagement in service, trade and manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finising treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions refugees.    Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabing of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mentalliness.    Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, therefore the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degrical disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.    Data source	Definition	Number of social integration centres, vocational activity workshops and occupational therapy workshops calculated per 100 thous. population.
Social Integration Centres (SIC) are educationally-oriented establishments involve such elements of education as participants' engagement in service, trade and manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finist treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions refugees.  Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabit of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mentalliness.  Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, therefore the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degrated disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012	Unit	number of objects such elements of education as participants' engagement in service, trade and manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finisi treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions refugees.  Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabi of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons w with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mentalliness.  Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, there the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degrated disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012	Available dimentions	total
Methodological explanations  of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons w with model degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mental illness.  Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, then the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degree of disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012		manufacturing activities. Among recipients of SIC social services, there are e.g. the long-term unemployed, the homeless, the disabled, alcohol and drug addicts (after finishing treatment), the mentally ill, the disabled, the released from penitentiary institutions and disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fit and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, ther the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate deg disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.  Data source  Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2012		Vocational Activity Workshops (VAW) are units that join socio-vocational rehabilitation of the disabled with conducting economic activity. VAW employs the disabled with a certificate of significant degree of disability, in some cases – persons w with moderate degree of disability if they were diagnosed with autism, mental retardation or mental illness.
Data availability Annual data; since 2012		Occupational Therapy Workshops (OTW) support the rehabilitation process of the disabled by developing their skills for everyday functioning, their psychophysical fitness and occupational qualifications. Among the recipients of OTW social services, there are the motorically or mentally retarded with a certificate of significant or moderate degree of disability including recommendation for occupational therapy.
	Data source	Statistics Poland
Notes	Data availability	Annual data; since 2012
Notes	Notes

Last update: 10-08-2021, 13:00