

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for national priorities

Sustainable Development Goal 8. Decent work and economic growth  Priority  Suitable creation of labour market to provide a Share of employees receiving monthly gross monthly gross earnings in the national economational economy.  Unit  percent [%]  Available dimentions  Wages and salaries (total) are cash payment persons, constituting expenditures incurred by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work in the national economy cover all units employing up to 9 persons. Data on aveconcern full-time and part-time employees reconcern full-time and part-time employees reconcern full-time and part-time explanations.  Monthly gross earnings do not include payment gratifications, retirement severance payments due to proposition and acceptance of inventive standards, equivalents for unused leave.	earnings of up to 50% of the average my in the total number of employees in the illities  ats paid to employees or other natural by the employers to for the payment of the
Share of employees receiving monthly gross monthly gross earnings in the national economational economy.  Unit  Percent [%]  Wages and salaries (total) are cash payment persons, constituting expenditures incurred by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of the basis fo	earnings of up to 50% of the average my in the total number of employees in the illities  ats paid to employees or other natural by the employers to for the payment of the Definition  monthly gross earnings in the national econominational economy.  Unit  percent [%]  total, women, age groups, persons with disab  Wages and salaries (total) are cash payment persons, constituting expenditures incurred by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrative basis of which the work or service is performed work in the national economy cover all units employing up to 9 persons. Data on averoncern full-time and part-time employees reconcern full-time employees full-time employees full-time employees full-time employees full-time employees full-time employees	ilities  Its paid to employees or other natural of the employers to for the payment of the Available dimentions  total, women, age groups, persons with disable dimentions  Wages and salaries (total) are cash payment persons, constituting expenditures incurred by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed work or	nts paid to employees or other natural y the employers to for the payment of the
Wages and salaries (total) are cash paymer persons, constituting expenditures incurred by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrated the basis of which the work or service is performed which the work or service is performed work or service is performed which the work or service is performed work, regardless of the sources of methods and acceptance in current by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contract the basis of which the work or service is performed work or	nts paid to employees or other natural y the employers to for the payment of the persons, constituting expenditures incurred by performed work, regardless of the sources of regardless of the basis for employment contrate the basis of which the work or service is performed.  Earnings in the national economy cover all units employing up to 9 persons. Data on aveconcern full-time and part-time employees reconcern full-time emplo	y the employers to for the payment of the
The source of the presented data is the surve occupations for 2016 (the questionnaire surve out with biennial frequency. It is a sample sur economy with the number of the employed expenses.	entities of the national economy, including rage earnings in the national economy calculated in terms of full-time employees.  Ints such as: anniversary prizes, one—time payments (compensatory), paid e project causing a change in labour  y on the structure of earnings by ey of Z-12 symbol). The survey is carried eyey and it covers entities of national
Data source   Statistics Poland
Data availability Data every 2 years; since 2010
Notes

Last update: 10-05-2022, 11:55