

Statistics for the SDGs - global indicators

| Sustainable Development Goal   Goal 12. Responsible consumption and production   | Name of the indicator | 12.8.1 Extent to which (i) global citizenship education and (ii) education for sustainable development are mainstreamed in (a) national education policies; (b) curricula; (c) teacher education; and (d) student assessment  |
|--|-----------------------|---|
| Definition  The indicator takes a value 1, if the education in sustainable development is carried or in particular in: global citizenship education, education for sustainable development (including climate change education) and this education are mainstreamed in national education policies, curricula, teacher education and student assessment.  Unit  (0,1)  Available dimensions  The dissemination among children and young people the knowledge about the princip of sustainable development and the shaping of attitudes, to foster its implementation i local, national and global scale is guaranteed by law (article 1, point 11 of the Act on education system - Journal of Laws from 2016, item 1943).  Minister for education determines the curricula that are mandatory's goals and teachic content, including the skills described in the form of general and specific requirements for skills and knowledge, which should have a student after completion of the particula stage of the educational as well as educational role of the school.  Methodological explanations  Methodological explanations  Objectives and content of the teaching for sustainable development are carried out in accordance with the basis of a curriculum controlled by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 27 August 2012 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum in different types of schools (Journal of Laws: from 2014, item 93 from 2014, item 903, and from 2016, item 895).  Starting with the school year 2017/2018, in primary schools and in 1-degree secondar schools will apply the curriculum governed by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 14 February 2017 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education moderate or severe, general education for 1-degree trade school, general education for peeds a school adoptive to work and education for post-secondary (Journal of Laws fro 2017, item 356).  Data source  Ministry of Education and Science  Annual data since 2010 |                       |   |
| Definition  in particular in: global citizenship education, education for sustainable development (including climate change education) and this education are mainstreamed in national education policies, curricula, teacher education and student assessment.  Unit  Available dimensions  The dissemination among children and young people the knowledge about the princip of sustainable development and the shaping of attitudes, to foster its implementation i local, national and global scale is guaranteed by law (article 1, point 11 of the Act on education system - Journal of Laws from 2016, item 1943).  Minister for education determines the curricula that are mandatory's goals and teach content, including the skills described in the form of general and specific requirements for skills and knowledge, which should have a student after completion of the particula stage of the educational as well as educational role of the school.  Objectives and content of the teaching for sustainable development are carried out in accordance with the basis of a curriculum controlled by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 27 August 2012 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum in different types of schools (Journal of Laws: from 2014, item 91 from 2014, item 803, and from 2016, item 895).  Starting with the school year 2017/2018, in primary schools and in 1-degree secondar schools will apply the curriculum governed by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 14 February 2017 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education for primary education, including for students with intellectual disabilities in moderate or severe, general education for 1-degree trade school, general education for special school adoptive to work and education for post-secondary (Journal of Laws fro 2017, item 356).  Data source  Ministry of Education and Science  Annual data since 2010   | Target                |   |
| The dissemination among children and young people the knowledge about the princip of sustainable development and the shaping of attitudes, to foster its implementation i local, national and global scale is guaranteed by law (article 1, point 11 of the Act on education system - Journal of Laws from 2016, item 1943).  Minister for education determines the curricula that are mandatory's goals and teach content, including the skills described in the form of general and specific requirements for skills and knowledge, which should have a student after completion of the particula stage of the educational as well as educational role of the school.  Methodological explanations  Methodological explanations  Objectives and content of the teaching for sustainable development are carried out in accordance with the basis of a curriculum controlled by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 27 August 2012 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum in different types of schools (Journal of Laws: from 2014, item 93 from 2014, item 803, and from 2016, item 895).  Starting with the school year 2017/2018, in primary schools and in 1-degree secondar schools will apply the curriculum governed by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 14 February 2017 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education for primary education, including for students with intellectual disabilities in moderate or severe, general education for 1-degree trade school, general education for special school adoptive to work and education for post-secondary (Journal of Laws from 2017, item 356).  Data source  Ministry of Education and Science  Annual data since 2010   | Definition            | (including climate change education) and this education are mainstreamed in national  |
| The dissemination among children and young people the knowledge about the princip of sustainable development and the shaping of attitudes, to foster its implementation i local, national and global scale is guaranteed by law (article 1, point 11 of the Act on education system - Journal of Laws from 2016, item 1943).  Minister for education determines the curricula that are mandatory's goals and teachicontent, including the skills described in the form of general and specific requirements for skills and knowledge, which should have a student after completion of the particula stage of the educational as well as educational role of the school.  Objectives and content of the teaching for sustainable development are carried out in accordance with the basis of a curriculum controlled by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 27 August 2012 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum in different types of schools (Journal of Laws: from 2014, item 97 from 2014, item 803, and from 2016, item 895).  Starting with the school year 2017/2018, in primary schools and in 1-degree secondar schools will apply the curriculum governed by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 14 February 2017 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education for primary education, including for students with intellectual disabilities in moderate or severe, general education for 1-degree trade school, general education for special school adoptive to work and education for post-secondary (Journal of Laws from 2017, item 356).  Data source  Ministry of Education and Science  Annual data since 2010   | Unit                  | {0,1}   |
| of sustainable development and the shaping of attitudes, to foster its implementation i local, national and global scale is guaranteed by law (article 1, point 11 of the Act on education system - Journal of Laws from 2016, item 1943).  Minister for education determines the curricula that are mandatory's goals and teachic content, including the skills described in the form of general and specific requirements for skills and knowledge, which should have a student after completion of the particula stage of the educational as well as educational role of the school.  Methodological explanations  Methodological explanations  Objectives and content of the teaching for sustainable development are carried out in accordance with the basis of a curriculum controlled by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 27 August 2012 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum in different types of schools (Journal of Laws: from 2014, item 97 from 2014, item 803, and from 2016, item 895).  Starting with the school year 2017/2018, in primary schools and in 1-degree secondar schools will apply the curriculum governed by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 14 February 2017 on the core pre-school curriculum and general educatic curriculum for primary education, including for students with intellectual disabilities in moderate or severe, general education for 1-degree trade school, general education for special school adoptive to work and education for post-secondary (Journal of Laws fro 2017, item 356).  Data source  Ministry of Education and Science  Annual data since 2010  | Available dimensions  |   |
| Data availability Annual data since 2010   |                       | education system - Journal of Laws from 2016, item 1943).  Minister for education determines the curricula that are mandatory's goals and teaching content, including the skills described in the form of general and specific requirements for skills and knowledge, which should have a student after completion of the particular stage of the educational as well as educational role of the school.  Objectives and content of the teaching for sustainable development are carried out in accordance with the basis of a curriculum controlled by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 27 August 2012 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum in different types of schools (Journal of Laws: from 2014, item 977, from 2014, item 803, and from 2016, item 895).  Starting with the school year 2017/2018, in primary schools and in 1-degree secondary schools will apply the curriculum governed by Regulation of the Minister of National Education of 14 February 2017 on the core pre-school curriculum and general education curriculum for primary education, including for students with intellectual disabilities in moderate or severe, general education for 1-degree trade school, general education for special school adoptive to work and education for post-secondary (Journal of Laws from |
|  | Data source           | Ministry of Education and Science   |
| Notes  | Data availability     | Annual data since 2010  |
|  | Notes                 |   |

Last update: 30-08-2022, 14:35