| A dwelling - a space for permanent residence of persons, built or remodelled for residential purpose; structurally separated (by permanent walls) within a building, consisting of a one or several rooms and auxiliary spaces (i.e.: foyer, hall, bathroom, toilet, wardrobe, pantry, hiding place), into which a separate access leads. A dwelling in residences for communities is understood as a premises, which is designated for the permanent residence. Information regarding completed dwellings concern all dwellings, i.e. dwellings in new or expanded residential or non-residential buildings (less than half of the total useful floor area is intended for residential purposes). Completion of a dwelling/building - according to the building law - means that the investor reported completion of its construction to the proper building control authorities and this body has not reported an objection (through a decision) or that the investor has obtained permission for use of this dwelling/building (through a decision) from the building control authorities. Municipal construction - housing construction primarily with a social or intervention character, realised entirely with gmina funds for the residential needs of low-income households. Social rental housing - housing construction implemented by Social Housing Assosiantions operating on a "non-profit" basis using a loan from Bank Gospodarstwa |
